— 1993 —

A Ministry of the First Baptist Church
Hammond, Indiana

As a young preacher, our Pastor Dr. Jack Hyles was faced with a landmark decision. He had to decide between keeping the "wealthy" church members or the bus kids. One night in the late spring of 1960 Brother Hyles stayed up all night praying, burdened by this decision. In the early morning hours, Brother Hyles fell on his face in front of the Conrad Hilton Hotel on Michigan Avenue (now the Chicago Hilton Hotel). Hundreds of people gathered around him as he wrestled with this decision. When the decision was made, Brother Hyles stood to his feet and shouted "I'll take the bus kids!" Below, a group of City Baptist students stand at that very same location. Hammond City Baptist School is a result of that landmark decision.

Hammond City Baptist School enrolled over 300 students in the 1992-93 school year. Each student was reached through the bus ministry. The labor of the busworkers is rewarded as many of our graduates go on to Hyles-Anderson College and full-time Christian service.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that sith forth and weapeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. Psalms 126:5-6

For thirty three years the "old church downtown" has been a citadel for the Bus Ministry. Hammond City Baptist School is a ministry of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana.

City Baptist School is located two blocks east of the First Baptist Church. On Sundays the building is used to conduct church services for Chicago teenagers. Thousands of teenagers have had their lives changed, through Christ, here at the City Baptist building.

A balanced education. . .

City Baptist students enjoy a variety of activities in addition to the regular classroom instruction. Involvement in sports, service groups, singing groups, drill team, and an opportunity to participate in the Annual Nationwide Pastors School at the First Baptist Church provides students a unique opportunity for growth and development spiritually, physically, and intellectually.

To accomplish this, the administration, teachers and staff work hard to maintain an environment free from the influences of gangs, drugs, and lawlessness prevalent in many schools. Through training and discipline, City Baptist students are given the liberty to fulfill God's will for their lives.

Those completing their education at City Baptist School succeed in every facet of life.

... in a sheltered environment.

Dedication

Mr. Chuck Lewis

Mr. Chuck Lewis was born on November 24, 1956 in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. After graduating from high school, Mr. Lewis joined the Marine Corp. It was during a service at the Christian Servicemen's Center at Camp Pendleton, California that Mr. Lewis accepted Christ as his Saviour.

Upon completing four years in the Marines, Mr. Lewis returned to South Bend, Indiana where he met a graduate of Hyles-Anderson College. Mr. Lewis decided to attend because of the graduate's influence, and later graduated with his degree in Pastoral Theology.

While registering delegates for the 1980 Pastor's School, Mr. Lewis met Sharon Blythe from First Baptist Church of Hammond, who was also registering delegates. This lovely young lady later became his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis now have four beautiful daughters, Amy, Christa, Valerie, and Rachael.

Mr. Lewis has been a valuable teacher at Hammond City Baptist for nine years. He is the preacher of the "A" Junior Church service on Sundays, and also works on an "A" bus route.

Mr. Lewis exemplifies the kind of teacher a student will always remember. His strong desire to teach and preach God's Word combined with all of the masculinity and courage of a soldier, is portrayed as he stands before his students. Without a doubt, Mr. Lewis has fully earned the love, respect, and admiration of the staff, faculty, and student body at Hammond City Baptist. We proudly dedicate our 1993 Overcomer to Mr. Chuck Lewis.

Mr. Lewis displays the heart of a servant as he serves his students.

"Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee."

Dr. Jack Hyles

Superintendent of Schools

Our Pastor, Brother Hyles is our example in the Christian life. Brother Hyles has taught us how to love, how to win souls to Christ, how to take a stand for the cause of Christ, and most of all, he has taught us to keep on going regardless of life's circumstances.

God has used our Pastor in an amazing way. Brother Hyles pastors the largest church in the world, is the Chancellor of Hyles-Anderson College, Superintendent of the Hammond Baptist school system; which includes four schools, and also travels nationwide each week preaching in fundamental churches.

City Baptist would not exist if it were not for our Preacher. We love him dearly.

Brother Hyles takes time with our Seniors to tell them stories of days gone by. Yesenia Perez asked Preacher where she could find a boyfriend just like him. Brother Hyles response was "They don't make them like me anymore". Poor Yesenia.

For 18 years Dr. Ray Young has been an assistant Pastor and Bus Director for the First Baptist Church of Hammond. For the past 10 years, Brother Young has held the position of "School Liaison" at City Baptist. He works directly with Brother Hyles and Mr. Douglass. Much of Brother Young's work is behind the scenes. Under his leadership, City Baptist's enrollment has increased over 200 students. City Baptist runs effectively because of Brother Young's leadership!

As the Administrator of Hammond City Baptist, Mr. Douglass works closely with staff, faculty, and students. Not only do we admire Mr. Douglass for his leadership, but we appreciate his friendship. Mr. Douglass is vital to the operation of Hammond City Baptist.

"AND OF SOME HAVE COMPASSION"

The one ingredient that every member of the City Baptist Faculty and Staff possess is a love for the students. The lives of these men and ladies have been dedicated to educating and influencing students to live godly. It is not uncommon for City Baptist students to hear the words "I love you".

CHAPEL, OUR SO THEN FAITH COMETH BY HEARING,

Dr. Darrell Moore

Chapel has meant so many things to me. It has made me realize how sinful my life really is. There have been many times when the message was so good, that I cried. The preacher's that come here have really touched my heart. I'm very thankful that we have chapel in this school. Chapel really helps.

James Avina

Carlos, Arnold, William, Genaro and Sergio add some good gospel music to our chapel.

Chapel has given me a chance to stick to the decisions that I make and not turn back on them throughout the week. It has also given me a chance to listen to God's Word three days during the school week and not only on Sunday, and to me that's a privilege.

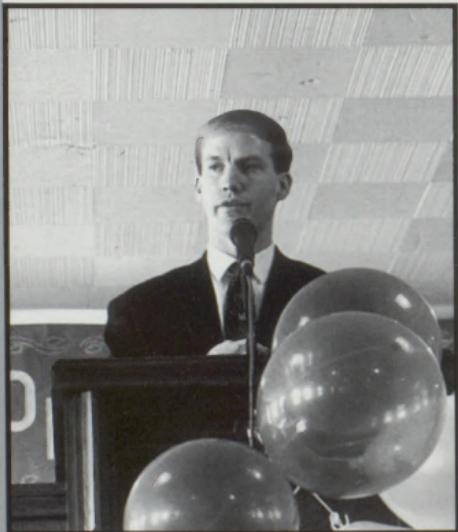

Patricia Alvarez

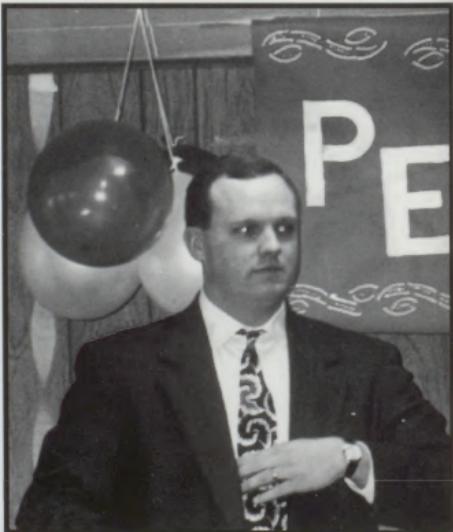

Wandaly Esquelin honors her division leader with some "goodies" before preaching time.

Heroes for our students are not Hollywood Stars, Rock Stars, or Sports Stars. Rather, they are Men of God, Preachers, Division Leaders, and Bus Captains. Brother Roger Casteel is seen here signing Bibles after a Chapel service.

Our Administrator, Mr. Douglass, challenged, admonished, and encouraged the students throughout the year.

Mr. John Francis, who had 19 students from his own personal bus route in City Baptist, preached fervently to our students many times throughout the year.

Bob Hooker's combination of humor and sincerity was used by God to influence our students for Christ.

Mr. Bob Marshall reminds the students of the value of a Christian education.

HAMMOND CITY BAPTIST GRADE SCHOOL SPIRIT OF THE EAGLES

Working Together As A Family

The Eagles of Hammond City Baptist Grade School are growing together as one family, taking every opportunity to serve each other. Teachers strive together to build not only academic and spiritual foundations, but also to develop a spirit of comradery that sets a family atmosphere throughout the grade school.

The students participate in many activities. They are learning to laugh and enjoy their youth while being taught to develop character traits which will benefit them as adults. The Eagles demonstrate their unique spirit of achieving spiritually and academically as taught in Ecclesiastes 9:10: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."

This year saw a variety of animals, machines, and other contraptions displayed as part of students' projects. Each year the projects are judged according to grade level and trophies are awarded. Congratulations, students, on a job well done!

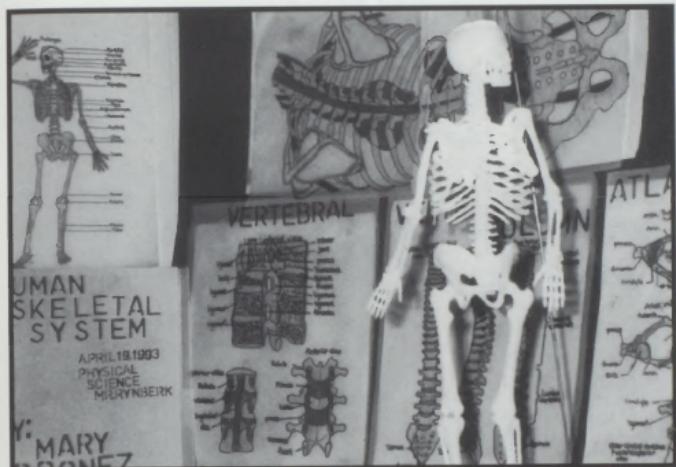

On the high school level, the freshmen competed against the sophomores. Though competition was tough, three freshmen Linette Lamboy, Mary Ordonez, and Rachel Montes won first, second, and third place trophies respectively.

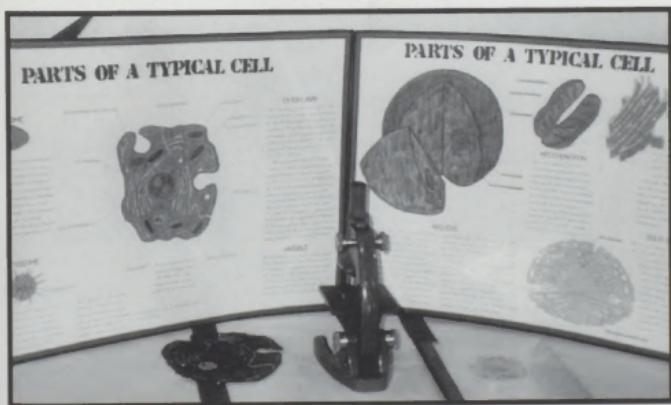

For the junior high, eighth grade "cell" expert, Carlos Fuerte, commanded first place honors. Two seventh grade projects, "Bees" by Lydia Gonzalez and "Bony Fish" by Rick Rosario earned second and third place trophies respectively.

1993 HOMECOMING

On Tuesday, May 11, the Apostles and Prophets squared off to play what would be the climax of the Homecoming week. It was a hard fought game, but it was the Apostles that came from behind to rally and triumph over the Prophets.

During halftime the Homecoming court waited with anticipation as the lovely young ladies were escorted to the center of the Decoster gymnasium at Hyles-Anderson College. Representing the seventh grade class was Jackie Gonzalez; the eighth grade class was Nelly Garcia; the freshman class was Linette Lamboy; the sophomore class was Elsi Vidal; the junior class was a tie between Narrima Archila and Isabel Santana; and the senior was Judith Velazquez. The anticipation ended as Jackie Gonzalez was named the Junior High Princess, and Judith Velazquez was named as the 1993 Homecoming Queen.

On Thursday, March 18, 1993, old-fashioned Baptist fundamentalism assembled at the Chicago Amphitheatre to close out the 1993 Pastors' School. City Baptist students played an important role in bringing dozens of unsaved visitors. Of the 12,000 in attendance, hundreds were saved and baptized that night.

A Year to Remember

Senior Trip

What a week! The class of '93 left on a Sunday afternoon. They visited Pastor Sam Carns' church in Warsaw, Indiana, (Hyles-Anderson graduate) for the Sunday evening service.

Monday was spent traveling to the Big Apple, New York City. Tuesday found the seniors at Ellis Island, and the Statue of Liberty. On Wednesday they had a congressional tour, a White House tour, and visited our Nation's Capitol. They returned to York, Pennsylvania, where they went soul-winning and visited Bible Baptist Church pastored by Hyles-Anderson graduate, Kevin Trout. Thursday they returned to D.C. and visited the FBI Center, The Pentagon, and an evening tour of the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials. Friday was spent traveling to Cincinnati, Ohio, and resting for the one final day at Kings Island.

A worn-out class of '93 returned to City Baptist on a Saturday evening with life-long memories.

Hey, Diana, the camera is over here!

The seniors were very thankful for Mr.
Geoff Dana who drove the van.

Pastor and Mrs. Trout hosted our seniors at their church in Pennsylvania.

Graduation

Graduation day . . . The class of 1993 assembles together one last time as high school students. Memories of teachers, friends, candy sales, classes, and chapels crowd their minds. Parents and bus workers anxiously await for their senior's name to be called to receive their high school diploma. During the past four years, many prayers, hundreds of dollars, and countless hours were invested in order to make this graduation day a reality for each young person in the class of 1993.

Amalia Hernandez pauses to reflect, and with anticipation she awaits her moment.

The Overcomer Ensemble sing for the last time as seniors, almost as if to say . . . "Farewell."

Byron's radiant face expresses a sense of accomplishment on graduation day.

The emotions are flowing as we are ready to begin graduation exercises.

With a smile the Molina family shows how proud they are of Wydalis.

Sergio Ortega and Cruz Garcia end the year with a smile.

Linette Lamboy and Patricia Dewey share a special moment together.

Our school would not be possible without
OUR PREACHER!

Aviran Vargas enjoys the thrill of standing next to his hero.
